The Altar Servers, of the Anglican Church, in the Archdeaconry of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines held their annual Servers Quiz on Saturday, November 18th at the Anglican Pastoral Centre. This was keenly contested by four parishes: St. George’s Cathedral – Shenik Kennedy, Janique Nichols, Adrian Morgan); St. Phillip’s Mesopotamia (Kayneil Henry, Roschasha Richardson, Najhma McKenzie); St. James’ Layou (Kayla Weeks, Grishna Charles, Amaliya Young) and St. Paul’s Calliaqua (Jenice Culzac). The competition saw St. Phillip’s Mesopotamia emerging champions dethroning St. George’s Cathedral, last year’s winner.

The quiz is an exercise aimed at promoting and improving religious education while teaching the Altar Servers to be well rounded individuals. It also seeks to provide an exciting but positive atmosphere to display their knowledge of the Bible, Anglicanism and the world around them (sports and current affairs). Each year a book is chosen from the Bible for the Spiritual round. This year the Book of Ephesians was chosen for the course of study.
