A new lecture series is available starting February 1st, 2022.

Karl Barth is arguably the most important and influential theologian in Europe in the twentieth century. In the context of Europe's self-reflection after two world wars, and in the intellectual wake left by Immanuel Kant, Barth produced his Church Dogmatics, a systematic theology that has shaped theology to the present day.

Presented by Dr. Sam Durley – PhD candidate, Ripon College, Cuddesdon
